

Blackbaud K12 – Admissions Committee Review

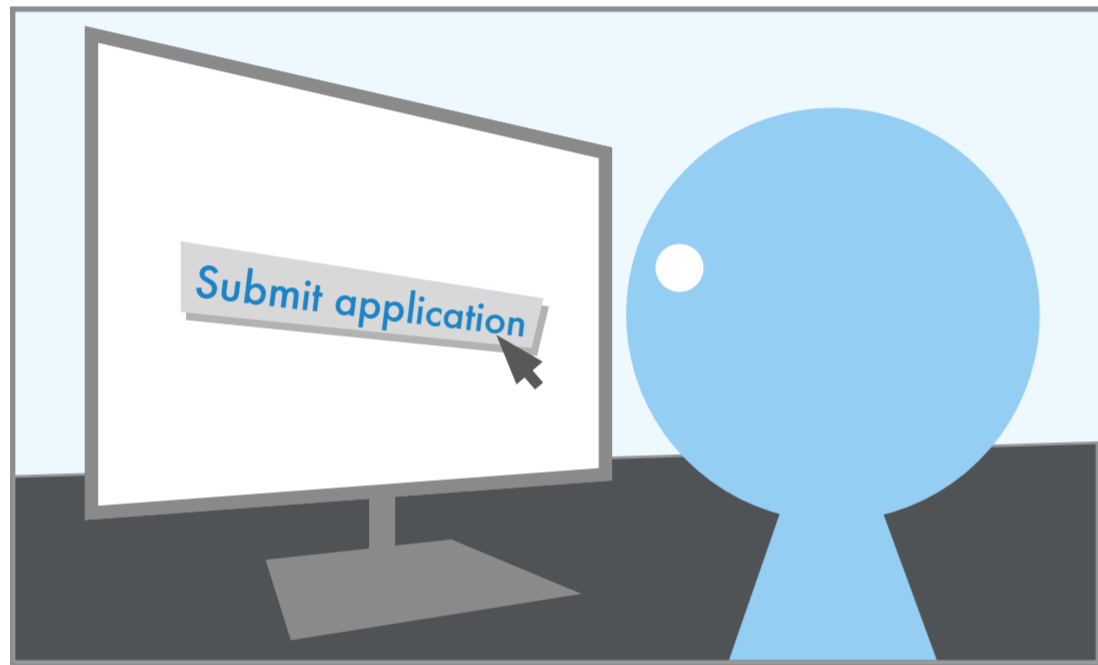

1. Maria and the rest of the admissions team meet up to determine what information is important to their school as they approach application season.

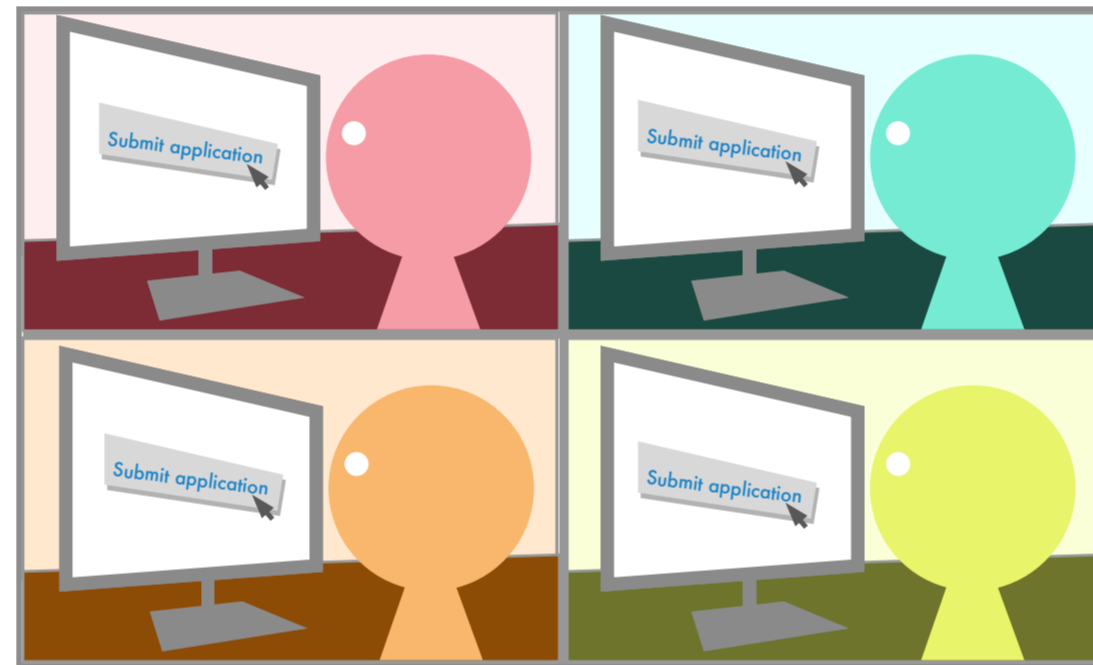

2. Maria has also been considering who would be good members for the admissions review committee.

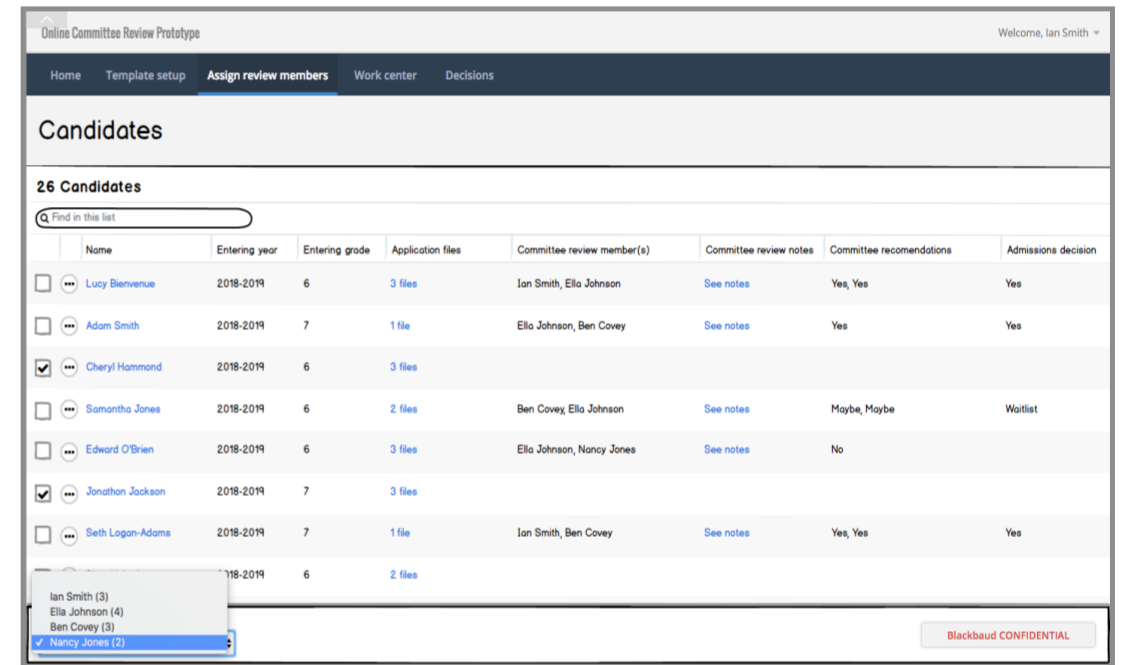

3. Maria uses onBoard to set up the review committee and the template they'll use as they review candidates.

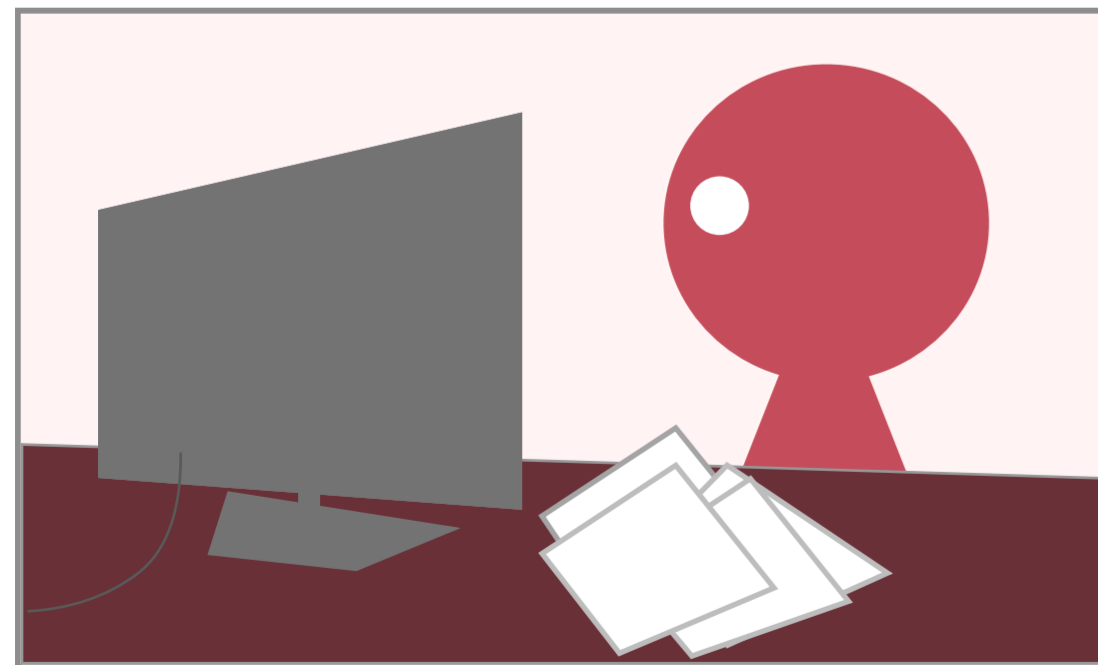

4. Meanwhile, Joey has finally gathered all necessary materials, and is submitting those along with his application.

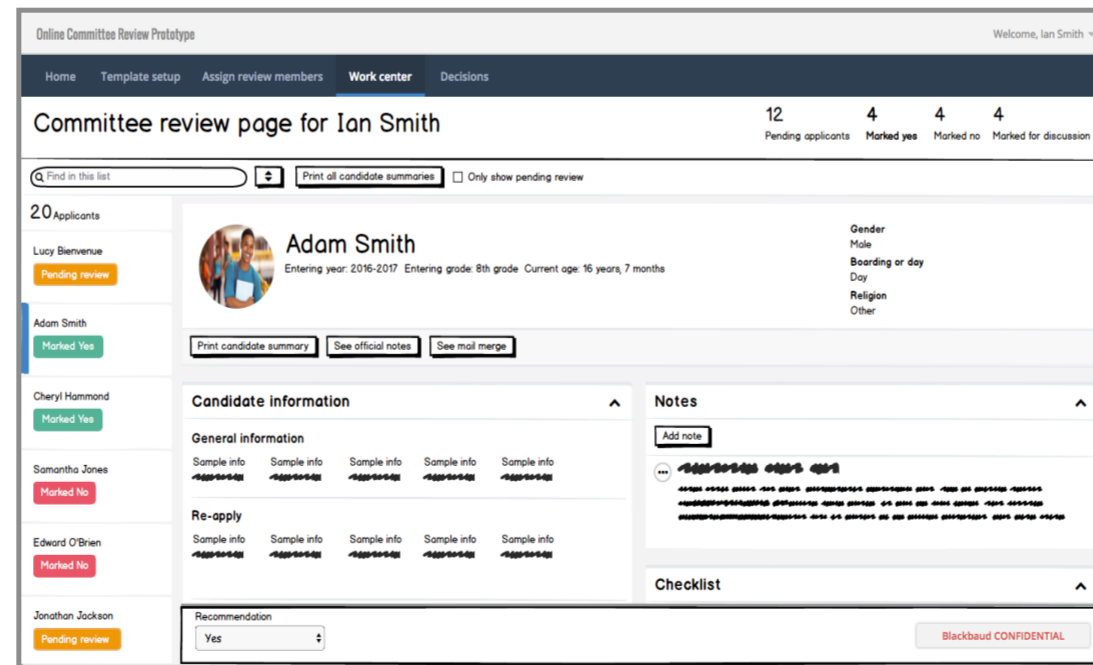

5. Joey's only one of several candidates who are submitting applications with the hopes of getting into this school.

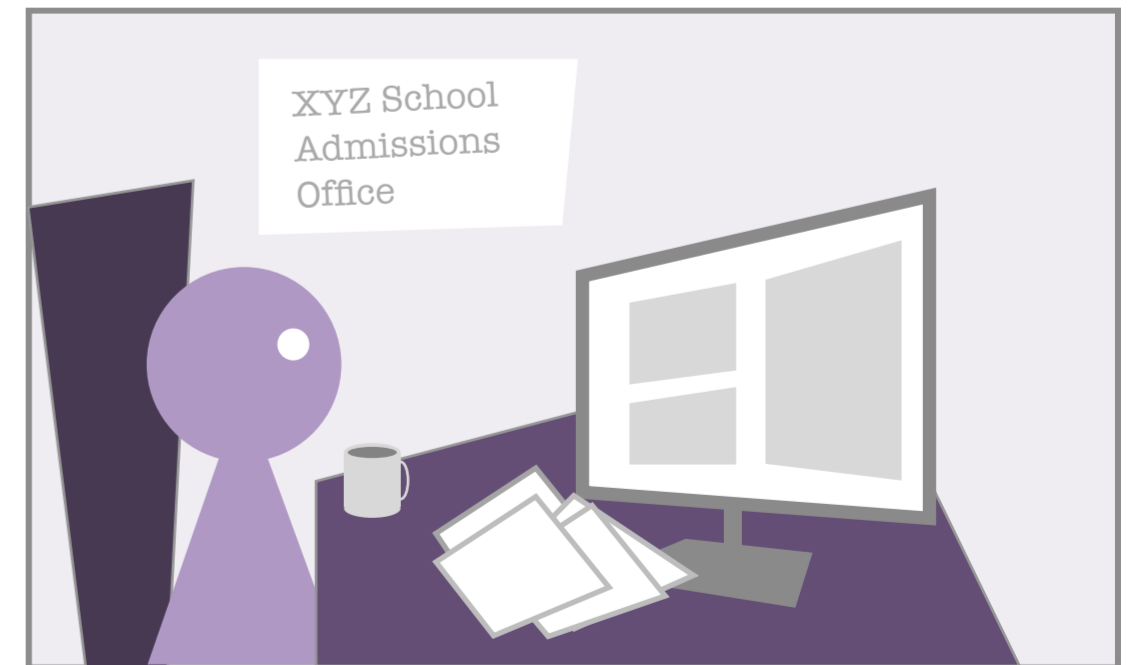

6. Maria uses the oBoard Candidate's List to indicate which committee members should review which candidates

7. Ian is a member of the review committee, and opens onBoard, and pulling up his list.

8. Ian reads through the summary for Adam Smith. After considering his scores, connections, and bio, he recommends that the school admit Adam.

9. The committee members have finished their review, and Maria uses those recommendations as she decides which candidates to admit, deny, or waitlist.
